

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is an outrageous abuse of its license to use the public airwaves free of charge.

This is not news, but direct participation in a political campaign.

Given the current regulatory structure, the FCC is obligated to prevent this sort of behavior, or if not prevent, order airing of the opposing viewpoint under the Fairness Doctrine.